AGENDA

- Study Permit
- Temporary Resident Visa (TRV) and ETA
- Working on- and off-campus
- Co-op Work Permit
- Post Graduation Work Permit
- Social Insurance Number
- IESC Advising Services and Contact
STUDY PERMIT

- Study Permit is a document issued by IRCC that authorizes you to study and stay in Canada.
- It includes specific conditions that may authorize you to work on- and/or off-campus.
- It is usually valid for the period of your academic program plus 90 days.
- If you need to study longer, you can apply for an extension of your Study Permit from within Canada.
Am I in trouble if my TRV is already expired?

You can apply for a new TRV from within Canada AFTER you receive your new study permit.
Electronic Travel Authorization (ETA) is a type of visa issued to citizens of certain countries and is required to enter Canada.

- Valid for 5 years
WORKING ON CAMPUS

- Hold a valid Study Permit with working conditions
- Maintain full-time status at the designated learning institution (DLI)
- Get a Social Insurance Number (SIN) from Service Canada
- There is no limit in number of hours to work on campus
WORKING OFF CAMPUS

- Hold a valid Study Permit with working conditions
- Maintain full-time status at the designated learning institution (DLI)
- Get a Social Insurance Number (SIN) from Service Canada
- You can work up to 20 hours per week during the academic year and full-time during scheduled breaks.
- Undergraduate students at Western have scheduled break during the summer.
- To work full time in the summer, you must be full-time student in a program before and after the scheduled break.
Remarks/Observations should indicate one of the following:

- May accept employment on the campus of the institution at which registered in full-time studies

Or

- May accept employment on or off campus if meeting eligibility criteria as per R186(f), (v) or (w). Must cease working if no longer meeting these criteria
CO-OP WORK PERMIT

- Some students at Western may have work as a requirement of their degree.
- If internship, co-op, practicum, placement, experiential learning is an “essential part of your program of study.”

You will need to apply for co-op work permit (CWP)

- Western University will be indicated as your employer.
- CWP cannot be used for working off campus in jobs that are not part of the academic position approved by your academic department.
WORKING AFTER GRADUATION

- Students don’t need a job offer to apply for work permit
- The PGWP is not employer specific
- You can work anywhere in Canada
- The job does not need to be related to your degree

To be eligible to apply for PGWP, students need to:

- Have completed all program requirements in program of study, approved for PGWP, that lasted at least eight months at a DLI

- CONTINUOUSLY studied FULL-TIME in Canada with the exception of part-time only in the final academic session
PGWP ELIGIBILITY

- Received written confirmation from Western that you have met the requirements for completing your academic program
- Received official transcript. Unofficial transcript from DLI’s website may be accepted
- You MUST hold a valid study permit when you apply for the work permit if you plan to start working under R186(w)

• Resources at Western
Culture Shock

• The anxiety from moving to a new environment
• The fear of the unknown
• Lack of familiarity of new cultures or way of life
• Physical and emotional discomfort
Culture Shock

Culture shock could happen within the first few days, weeks or months. Some of the symptoms are:

• Feeling homesick
• Desire to avoid social gatherings
• Anger towards the host culture
• Low moods and feeling helpless
• Having issues concentrating at lectures
• Concerns related to new food, weather and way of life.
• Difficulties sleeping
• I came in ______________
• First thing I noticed was ______________
• I miss ________________
• I am looking forward to learning ______________
• Whenever I feel overwhelmed, I ____________
Culture Shock: Coping Mechanism

• Set realistic expectations – Acknowledging that adjusting to new culture takes time
• Avoid comparing your new culture with life back home
• Focus on the things you like
• Get to know people
What Does It Mean?

- It means to focus on YOU and take up activities that would help you achieve a better life balance.
- Evaluating your wellness and taking steps to improve any aspect of wellness.

Ask for Help

• There are many things we can do to help ourselves and maintain good mental health.

• Sometimes our feelings of stress, isolation, anxiety or depression can be too much. If you feel overwhelmed, ask for help!

• You may need help with your job search, or your course work, or settling into your new life.

• If you are an international student, you can access many resources on campus.
Western Wellness Wheel

Thank you
Managing waste on campus is comparable to managing a small city's garbage and recycling! We all need to do our part to sort it right.

50% Diversion Rate
THE FACTS

- When recycling is not properly separated, it goes to landfill
- Paper-based food containers are the most common contaminant
- Unbagged garbage & recyclables like boxes clog the garbage chutes

THE FEEDBACK

- Most students are unaware of two-stream recycling
- Not enough Organics Bins
- Recycling rooms can be far from bedrooms (inconvenient)
- Students want more education / knowledge on how to sort correctly
PLEASE HELP :)

- Paper & Containers are kept separate
- Clear bags only for recycling
- Guide to Waste Diversion
- Recycle Coach App

Are you putting your waste in the right place?

GUIDE TO WASTE DIVERSION IN RESIDENCES
Made by students, for students
WASTE DIVERSION SUMMARY

COVID has had a massive impact on waste.

Infrastructure and educational improvements are needed and underway (e.g. expand organics, better training).

Students have a huge opportunity to make positive impacts!

If all else fails...
Just remember...
it takes two!
